ACUI Regionals

We wrapped up the month by travelling to compete in the ACUI Lower Midwest Regionals, facing off against some of the strongest collegiate shooters in the division. The team delivered an impressive performance, securing multiple individual and team podium finishes across several different events.

Lizzie Garcia placed third in Women’s Skeet. In the Classic All-American (CAA) event, which combines scores from trap, skeet, and sporting clays, Chelsea Bajjali took first place in the Women’s division with Lizzie close behind her in second! Gabe Salinas earned second place CAA in the Men’s division, and Nico Boyd-Garcia took third.

This regional event marked the beginning of an intense seven-week training period as TXTS prepares for Nationals. With momentum on our side, the team is looking forward to refining their skills and securing even more podium finishes on the national stage!

Also, an extra congratulations to Lizzie Garcia for her incredible achievement of shooting an impressive 98 in American Skeet beating an Aggie!

Our Team in the Spotlight!

One of our top shooters, José Alberto González Aranda, was featured in Medium! The Article, Taking Aim at Greatness, highlights his dedication to the sport and how our team has helped him refine his skills. Despite challenges, José has become a standout competitor thanks to his hard work and the support of his teammates. Check out the article to see why he's one of our best!

Upcoming Events Volunteer Work

In the coming months, TXTS members will assist four non-profits with their fundraising endeavors:

- The Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation (Feb. 15)
- Imagine a Way (Mar. 7)
- Austin Smiles (Apr. 11)
- Austin Woods and Waters (Apr. 11)

We are always looking for new organizations to support, and have plenty of experience overseeing raffles, cleaning venues, and pulling targets. If you know of anyone that could use some longhorn volunteers, contact us at texas.shotgun.sports@gmail.com.
